ABOUT THE CLUB

FK Gornje Sinkovce was founded in 1980. In accordance with its founding principles, the club originally bore the name "FK Kooperant," in honor of the company Kooperant, which was the club's main sponsor.

The club's first president was Živorad Denić, the founder and owner of the company DCP Hemigal, one of the most recognizable business entities in southern Serbia.

The club achieved its first significant success in the 1981/82 season by winning the Leskovac City Cup.
